MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

WHO IS ELIGIBLE
Any person, firm or corporation engaged in or having interest in the Pultrusion Industry and who is also a Member of the American Composites Manufacturers Association (hereinafter referred to as "ACMA") shall automatically be eligible to become a Member of the Pultrusion Industry Council (the "Organization").

CLASSES OF MEMBERSHIP
There shall be two classes of membership: Full Members shall be pultruders and industry suppliers and distributors with primary operations on the North American continent. These members shall have voting rights in the Organization. Affiliate Members shall be other organizations including but not limited to: academia, research institutions, designers, and non-North American based pultruders, suppliers, and distributors. These members shall not have the right to vote.

DUES
The fiscal year of the ACMA is July 1 – June 30. When initially joining PIC, if a company or individual joins July 1 – December 31, full dues are required. Between January 1 – April 30, half dues apply. After April 30 a new member can join by paying full dues, which will cover his dues for the remainder of the current fiscal year and the next fiscal year. After joining dues are due and payable in full with ACMA dues.

VOTING REPRESENTATIVES
Each Full Member firm or corporation shall appoint a person to be its official representative in the Organization who shall represent, vote and act for the Member in all its affairs of the Organization (the "Representative"). The Representative will also receive official correspondence and notifications. A Member may also designate an Alternative Representative to attend and vote on behalf of the Member should the official Representative be unable to attend a Membership meeting.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP
Any person, firm or corporation eligible for Membership under the PIC Bylaws may be admitted upon written application and payment of such fees and assessments as shall be determined by the Officers. Applications for Membership shall be submitted to the ACMA Headquarters office.

DURATION AND RESIGNATION (OR TERMINATION)
Membership in this Organization may terminate by voluntary withdrawal as herein provided, or otherwise pursuant to these Bylaws. All rights, privileges and interest of a Member in or to the Organization shall cease on termination of the Membership. Any Member may, by giving 30-days written notice of such intention, withdraw from membership. Such notice shall be presented to the Officers at their next succeeding meeting. Withdrawals shall be effective upon fulfillment of all obligations to the date of withdrawal.

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION
Any Membership may be suspended or terminated for cause. Sufficient cause for such suspension or termination of Membership shall be violation of the Bylaws or any lawful rule or practice duly adopted by the Organization or any other conduct prejudicial to the interest of the organization. Termination of membership based upon the failure to pay dues by the October 1 deadline shall be automatic. Suspension or expulsion based upon any other cause shall be by unanimous vote of the Officers, provided that a statement of the charges shall have been mailed by certified or registered post to the last recorded address of the member at least fifteen (15) days before final action is taken thereon. This statement shall be accompanied by a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Officers at which the charges shall be considered and notification that the Member shall have the opportunity to appear in person and/or be represented by counsel to present any defense to such charges before final action is taken thereon. The Officers' decision shall become immediately effective and shall be final unless overruled by a majority vote of the Membership acting with advice of the Organization's counsel.
